

RumbaFish Selected into Astia Program

Joins Ranks of High-Potential, High-Growth Companies

May 5, 2009

RumbaFish Technologies, Inc.
Palo Alto, CA

RumbaFish, as a high-potential, high-growth company, has been selected for the Astia program. Astia provides innovative programs that ensure selected companies gain access to resources, achieve and sustain high-growth, and develop the executive leadership of the founding team.

Astia focuses their attention on a small number of high-potential companies. Each company is carefully screened by industry experts and investors.

Companies accepted into the program benefit from significant subsidies provided by the sponsors as well as advisory services delivered by a community of more than 450 experts, current CEOs and investors.

RumbaFish looks forward to working with Astia as we build the company.

About Astia:

Funding - Growth - Leadership for exceptional Entrepreneurs. Astia is a community of experts committed to building women leaders and accelerating the funding and growth of high potential, high growth, women led start ups. Astia is a unique, international not-for-profit organization. Astia provides innovative programs that ensure companies gain access to capital, achieve and sustain high-growth, and develop the executive leadership of the founding team.

By entrepreneurs for entrepreneurs

Designed for startups at all stages, the Astia programs are implemented by more than 450 members of the Astia Advisor Network that includes more than 100 former and current CEOs and 125 investors. Astia is an extremely committed community of advisors, investors, industry leaders, and entrepreneurs. For more info visit www.astia.org.

